

THE DAILY BEE.

Monday Morning, Jan. 21.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Three suspicious characters and a disorderly soldier, were run into the city jail Saturday night. The Emerald Social club will hold their last party of the season on Thursday, January 31st, at Masonic hall. Chief Butler has put a gong in the water works engine house, and the whistle there is blown now at each fire alarm. Master George Miner and Miss Mamie Morse won the masters' and misses' prizes of skates at the roller rink Saturday afternoon. An alarm from box 3 called the fire department out to Twentieth street and St. Mary's avenue yesterday morning. A house belonging to Welshaw & McEwin was partially destroyed by fire. The Danish congregation, corner of Eighteenth street and St. Mary's avenue, will hold a two-day social on the 25th and 26th of this month, the proceeds of which will be devoted to the church fund. Partitions are being put up at the south end of the city hall, which is used both as a district court room and as a city council chamber, to form jury rooms. The lobby will feel that it is aggrieved. John Miller, of the Republican office, has increased the population of Omaha by being instrumental in bringing into existence a twelve pound boy, which was born Friday evening. As it is the first, John is deservedly proud. A colored man, of the gang known as tramps, was before Judge Benke Saturday to answer to the charge of vagrancy. He was found guilty and was sent up to the county jail for ten days, during which time he will dine on bread and water. Marshall Guthrie, while sending out a policeman Saturday to find a seakink saucer that had been stolen, found another seakink saucer, evidently stolen some time ago, and will take steps to restore it to the owner if properly proven. Suit has been begun in the district court by Giles A. Davis and Henry A. Pierce against Catherine Dubois, Phillip Dubois, William Dubois and Alice Dubois, to foreclose a mortgage on the half of northeast quarter of section 28, township 16, range 10 east. The tenth grand festival of the Omaha Turner society will take place on Saturday, January 20th, in the new and elegant hall on Harney street. The turners are making great preparations, and it is expected that there will be a very large gathering on that occasion. Superintendent McCabe, of the St. Paul & Omaha railway, who returned on Thursday night from a trip over the line, was as far as Hartington, the terminus of the new Cedar county branch. Hartington, an infant town of ten weeks' existence, has already about 120 buildings and is growing. Where the loss of an overcoat has a chance to detect and prosecute a thief it is his interest as well as that of the public to do so. Refusal to follow up a thief of this kind in a leading hotel some weeks ago has allowed a thief, the same one no doubt, to steal three more overcoats from the house. Grand Oyster Supper at Haswell's park, Monday evening January 21st, 1884. Proceeds to be applied to a fund for the erection of pastoral residence at St. Patrick's church, S. Omaha. A splendid time guaranteed. A. O. H. Band have volunteered their services. A good programme, good music, efficient committees. Marietta Jolly, a young woman about eighteen years of age, who has been confined in the insane ward of the county jail for two weeks past, was sent to her home at Harlan, Iowa, Saturday in charge of Deputy Grebe. She had been living among the most degraded of the fallen women and is supposed to have lost her mind from exposure. Her father is a respectable farmer. Mrs. Dr. Green, who feels called upon to lecture upon the "Teachings and Practices of the Jesuits" and who is endeavoring to reclaim her daughter, for whose education she expended five thousand dollars, was born in Springfield, Ill., in 1833, and is related to the family of Hamptons, of South Carolina; is second cousin to General Wade Hampton, and cousin to the late Colonel John C. Burch, who was at one time secretary of the United States senate. Mr. E. A. O'Brien, F. M. McDonagh and W. A. Saunders, rallied Plattsburgh Wednesday evening to participate in the opening of the Catholic fair. Unfortunately for the managers of the fair the announcement of their coming had a disastrous effect on the receipts. Two editors in a day was too much for the townspeople, but the cruellest cut of all was making an Irishman out of Saunders and baptizing him Mr. McGee. The roller rink was again thronged Saturday evening, the attraction being the third match of the series of polo games. Saturday night's game was one of the most severe contests ever seen. This time the "Blues" were the successful contestants. The first two games were won by the "Reds" and the "Blues" went in with the firm determination of winning the third. The interest in the game was very great and the rough tumbles and hard knocks were greatly enjoyed by the audience. Miss Fannie Arnold, assisted by several Omaha musicians, is announced to give a concert in Brownville some time next month. Miss Arnold is the organist and leader of the choir of St. Philomena's cathedral, and during the past year she has been very successful in training the choir and rendering some of the most difficult music of the Catholic church. She is not only a thorough teacher of music but is also a most successful pianist. She has been attending to the gentlemen required to Campbell's restaurant, on Douglas street where an elegant banquet had been prepared in honor of the occasion. There the company remained until a late hour enjoying the good things and witty and interesting speeches made by different members. A BIRTHDAY PARTY was given Tuesday evening at the residence of Mr. John Logan, in honor of his gentlemanly sixtieth birthday. It was a complete and most pleasant surprise to the old man. His friends left a large arm chair behind as a token of their regard. The concert given by the Glee Club, Tuesday evening, January 15th, was a most entertaining and successful one. Each individual member of the chorus was, apparently, in good voice and the nicety of accent and pronunciation was beautiful in the extreme. The gentlemen certainly appreciate the value of at-

SOCIALISTICALLY SPEAKING.

The Past Week Has Been One of Considerable Life, Although No Particularly Bright Events Have Transpired.

Pleasant Parties, Social Gatherings, and the Movements of People About Town Generally.

What a shifting scene is presented to one sitting quietly by and watching the constant play of the social world. Weeks, months and years roll by bringing with them, in some instances, weddings, which remove bright and popular stars from the circle where they have been known. At another time Death calls for the liveliest and loveliest—and death will not be disobeyed. Misfortune befalls another and the wealth which has procured so prominent a position in society's kingdom is gone. The world knows him no more forever and the unhappy victim of fortune's caprice sinks into oblivion. Yet how lightly the many changes, that are constantly taking place, effect the circles in which they appear. The same round of pleasure and gaiety, the same excitement and enjoyment prevails and the places of the absent ones are so filled to overflowing that they are soon forgotten, except by the most intimate friends. And the world goes round and times flies on and we are all happy in our own peculiar way. The past week has not been marked by any particularly dazzling event in the social history of Omaha, though there have been many pleasant and enjoyable entertainments of various kinds. Perhaps this slight lull is due to the change in the weather. Indeed the few days of January thaw which we have enjoyed this week were overpowering in the extreme, producing a feeling of lassitude and ennui that is commonly known by the vulgar name of "spring fever." But another change has been effected in the condition of the atmosphere, the ground is white with snow, the sleigh bells are again jingling merrily, and winter, that jolly old fellow, who bears as many secrets "but nothing he tells, and who for so many years has played his pranks upon the unwary—but who will always be just as jolly, no matter how old—has once more laid the tips of his icy fingers upon our world, and the sharp frosty air sends the quick blood leaping through the veins, bringing the flush of health to the cheek, invigorating the will, and giving life and animation. There is a healthy man, woman or child, who cannot truly say with the poet: "Winter is jolly." A change like this in the weather always has a direct effect upon more or less of the human race, and in this way upon society at large, and no doubt the coming week will be so filled with social gatherings and various descriptions, that a score of reporters will be needed to look after them all. There is one existing, unavoidable condition that should make this season's social events of more than usual interest and excitement. This is leap year. And we have not the least doubt but that many happy and successful marriages will be contracted—which have, perhaps, been waiting for many months for this particular time, will be celebrated with much pleasure, and right glad we shall be to record them. Indeed several "leap year doings," which are a little out of the ordinary line, have already come under our observation, and in good time you shall hear all about them. As we have before stated, the EVENTS OF THE PAST WEEK have been quite numerous, and all have passed off very pleasantly. The first took place Sunday evening and was the presentation at the GERMAN THEATRE of the powerful and thrilling drama, "Crime and Retribution, or the Power of Conscience." The house was filled to its utmost capacity and the play was excellently well done. The company has for some time been presenting nothing but light farces and burlesques, and the change was received with much pleasure by all. Mr. Pechtel as Mathis, Mr. Molchin, as Caspar and Mrs. Puls-Ahl as Annette, were particularly good.

Planet Lodge, No. 4, gave a very pleasant ball and supper Monday evening for the benefit of a sick member. There were about seventy-five couples in attendance. Hoffman's orchestra furnished the music, which was first-class, and after a few hours of dancing, all were prepared to thoroughly enjoy the sumptuous supper which was served about midnight. All present expressed themselves well pleased with the evening's entertainment and are hoping that this will not be the last of such parties.

KEYS-VAN ORMAN. Mr. George Keys, train agent on the U. P. railway, between Omaha and Council Bluffs, and Miss Annie Van Orman were married last Monday evening at the residence of the bride's parents, by Rev. F. S. Blaney. The many friends of each unite heartily in wishing them much happiness in their future ones.

A meeting of Pioneer Council No. 118, of the ROYAL ARCADEM society was held Tuesday evening for the purpose of being instructed in the work of 1884. Among those present from abroad were R. H. Wilber, of Nebraska City, Arthur Gibson, and G. W. D. Reynolds, of Fremont, and Hon. H. E. W. Campbell, of Boston, Mass. Mr. Campbell is one of the most prominent men of this organization, and devotes his time exclusively to the work of the order. After the business of the evening had been attended to, the gentlemen repaired to Campbell's restaurant, on Douglas street where an elegant banquet had been prepared in honor of the occasion. There the company remained until a late hour enjoying the good things and witty and interesting speeches made by different members.

A BIRTHDAY PARTY was given Tuesday evening at the residence of Mr. John Logan, in honor of his gentlemanly sixtieth birthday. It was a complete and most pleasant surprise to the old man. His friends left a large arm chair behind as a token of their regard.

THE GLEE CLUB. The concert given by the Glee Club, Tuesday evening, January 15th, was a most entertaining and successful one. Each individual member of the chorus was, apparently, in good voice and the nicety of accent and pronunciation was beautiful in the extreme. The gentlemen certainly appreciate the value of attending closely to their leader, and when this is the case, and the leader is as good as in the present instance, the effect cannot help being pleasing to both singers and audience. The club sang even better than ever before and the harmony was excellent. The trio, the quartette, the song and chorus, and the solo, by Mr. France, were all well rendered and the most that can be said is that the audience was thoroughly pleased. So much has already been said of Miss Hope Glenn we can only repeat that her voice is a beautiful, rich contralto, such as is rarely heard. Her power and flexibility are wonderful and her appearance is most pleasing. Should she ever sing again in Omaha her many admirers would not miss the chance of hearing her.

THE SKATING RINK. The managers of this pleasant and popular place of resort are constantly offering some new inducement to make an evening there pass pleasantly. On Wednesday evening the Moonlight Serenade club sang some of their quaint, old, negro melodies very nicely making a pleasant diversion in the evening's entertainment. The tournament Thursday night was quite exciting and very interesting. The Tuesday evening party by Max Meyer & Bro., is a beautiful one and is now in the possession of Mr. Will Grattan he having won it Thursday night. To-night a game of polo will be played.

THE METROPOLITAN. On Tuesday evening the third party of the Metropolitan club was held in Masonic hall. This was an informal social hour and though not a dressy party a very pleasant one. Their next party will be a dress ball.

WOODEN WEDDING. Mr. and Mrs. Max Meyer celebrated their wooden wedding on Tuesday evening, January 15th and on that occasion gave a commemorative party. A goodly number were present and all expressed themselves pleased with the entertainment, and were loud in their praise of their enter amers.

THE RECEPTION GIVEN LAST TUESDAY EVENING by Mrs. Lewis Reed, at her residence on Davenport and Twenty-second streets, was largely attended and proved a very enjoyable affair.

THE CHATEAUX CIRCLE held a literary soiree at the residence of Mrs. Dewey on Tuesday evening. The circle is composed of about fifty young people who find the course of study, in which they are engaged very beneficial mentally, and a source of much pleasure in the production of social intercourse. There was a very pleasant little

PRIVATE PARTY in the basement of the Opera House Wednesday evening. About twenty-five couples took part in the dance. Another quiet little party was assembled at the residence of

MR. WOODARD, 417 Fifth street, South Omaha, on Wednesday evening, and with dancing and a fine supper the company was merrily entertained until a late hour. The first annual ball of the BOILER MAKERS AND HELPERS of Omaha was given at Masonic hall Wednesday evening. Irvine's orchestra furnished the music and about ninety couples were present to keep time with flying feet to the entrancing strains. Everything passed off pleasantly, for which the various committees are largely responsible.

RUTH REBECCA LOGG, No. 1 gave the second of their series of hope Thursday night at Masonic hall. Over one hundred couples were present, and it was indeed a novel sight. Old men and white hair and young lassies in short curls dancing in the same circle. It is exceedingly pleasant to find a man or a woman in a while, who has not forgotten their own young. This party proved a most delightful affair, and it is hoped will soon be repeated. Irvine's orchestra furnished the music.

THE HOME CIRCLE CLUB held one of their delightful parties at Masonic last night. A particular feature of the evening was the introduction of a new and very pretty round dance. This has become quite noted for its pleasant entertainments.

THE GERMAN. The Omaha German club gave one of their unique parties at the Millard Friday evening. The attendance this time was much larger than on the preceding occasion owing to the fact that many of the patrons who were then absent from town are now at home. The affair last night was an elegant one as to dress, a delightful one as to enjoyment, and a most decided success in every particular. A bountiful supper was served in the dining room. The leaders were E. S. Raff, C. L. Deuel, Chas. Beach and Warren Rogers. The music was furnished by Hoffman.

MATRIMONIAL. A few weddings have occurred within the past week which, though not solemnized in Omaha, are of considerable interest to our citizens. One of these occurred at Plattsmouth on the 15th. The contracting parties being Miss Lizzie Schickelmecht, of Plattsmouth, and Frank F. Doris, an employe of L. B. Williams & Co. of this city. The ceremony was performed by Rev. T. M. Steilbrock at the residence of Dr. W. H. Schickelmecht. Although a quiet affair many were the kindly wishes proffered them and the young people of Plattsmouth are sincere in their regrets at losing so popular a young lady from their midst. The happy couple will make their home in Omaha.

RILEY-WHITEY cards have been received in this city announcing the wedding of Mr. James E. Riley, of Omaha, and Miss Katherine M. Whitey, of Plattsburg, N. Y., which took place there on the 10th inst. Mr. Riley is a man of much energy and ability, who is well known in Omaha, and his many friends wish him much joy in his new sphere. Mr. Riley and his bride arrived in this city to-day, and were warmly welcomed by many friends.

COMING EVENTS. The coming week promises to be one of pleasant excitement, and many invitations are out. A highly enjoyable affair will be the PRIVATE MASQUERADE given Tuesday night by C. C. Field, being his sixth annual party.

THE OMAHA MASQUERADE club will give a private masquerade next Thursday night, which will also be of an enjoyable character as their parties always are.

BURNS BANQUET. The Burns club will give a ball and banquet on the 25th, at Crounse's hall, which promises to be one of the most pleasant parties of the season.

TELEGRAPHERS BALL. The Telegraphers are still using every means to perfect the arrangements for their ball to be given the 28th, in Crounse hall, and in this they will no doubt prove successful.

A Startling Discovery. Mr. Wm. Johnson, of Huron, Dak., writes that his wife had been troubled with acute Bronchitis for many years, and that all remedies tried gave no permanent relief, until he procured a bottle of Dr. J. C. New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs, and Colds, which had a magical effect, and produced a permanent cure. It is guaranteed to cure all Diseases of Throat, Lungs, or Bronchial Tubes. Trial bottles Free at C. F. Goodman's Drug Store. Large size $1.00.

THOMAS NOLAN.

He was Found Where He Had No Right, and Narrowly Escaped Death.

On Saturday it was reported about the city that Thomas Nolan, a sewer contractor, had been making love to the wife of C. C. Cary (colored), a cook in C. S. Higgins' restaurant, and that Mr. Cary had caught Nolan locked up in his (Cary's) house on Friday night with Mrs. Cary. Nolan skipped, with Cary in close pursuit, revolver in hand.

Mr. Nolan is a good-looking young fellow, and took the opportunity afforded by Mrs. Cary's absence attending a lodge meeting, which only takes place once a week, to attempt to ingratiate himself into the good favors of his wife.

On Friday night, which happened to be lodge night, Mr. Cary is said to have started down town and about the same time his rival called upon the wife at her residence but before reaching the secret conclave, Mr. Cary changed his mind in regard to attending it and turned about and went home, arriving there quite a considerable time before he was expected. On arriving at his mansion he found the front door locked and on ordering his wife to open the door it is said that he saw Nolan making his escape at the rear door. He made a dive for the intruder who hastily made his exit and soon reached the street. He was chased by the irate husband as far as Cuming street and in the meantime emptied two chambers of his revolver at the fleeing party.

In the chase Cary gained upon the fleeing Nolan and let off a couple more loads from his revolver. Nolan began to think, no doubt, that he was doomed to death, and drew off his overcoat and threw it down, hoping in this way to check the speed of the irate husband. This had the desired effect and Cary shouldered the coat and moved away. On Saturday Cary filed a complaint against Nolan for disturbing the peace, and the case will probably be tried to-day.

Cary's wife is said to be a very nice looking colored woman, who dresses in unexceptional style, and has recently made numerous trips to Chicago and elsewhere, showing that the family are not in any reduced condition of circumstances. Mr. Nolan is cordially invited to call and claim his coat, but it is stated that only personal application will secure the garment. North Omaha has been noted for its sensation for the past few years, and it is said that none of them have stirred up the community as did that of last evening.

BURNS' BANQUET.

FRISKY FELLOWS.

Two Drummers, Filled with Liquor, Attempt to Run the Millard Hotel.

And Are Pitched Head First into the Ditch by One of the Proprietors and the Clerk.

On Saturday, Ralph Wolfe, of Chicago, and R. L. Hannaman, of New York, registered at the Millard hotel and were assigned rooms.

They are both traveling salesmen, and yesterday, contrary to the rules of the profession, they got gloriously drunk. After the supper hour had passed last evening they rounded into the office of the hotel and asked for supper. They were informed that supper was over. This riled them up greatly. They jumped and plunged around the office, and Wolfe threw high his hat in the air and declared himself a gentleman, and used much loud and profane language.

They not only abused the clerks, proprietor and the house itself, but fell to abusing the guests also. They made such a racket that people who were rooming on the fifth floor of the house were disturbed, and descended to the office to see what all the racket was about.

One of the proprietors tried to quiet and pacify them but he was unsuccessful. They paid their bills, but still continued to storm and rage, and began to talk fight. About this time one of the proprietors seized one of them by the collar, while the light weight clerk collared the other, and they fired them bodily into the street and set their baggage out upon the sidewalk.

This cooled off their hot blood quite effectually, and after picking themselves up from the ditch, they gathered together and went to another hotel. They have probably made up their minds, ere this, that there is one hotel, at least, in Omaha that they cannot run, and if they travel on that plan, they will find several more just such houses right here in this city.

An End to Bone Scraping.

Edward Shepherd, of Harrisburg, Ill., says: "Having received so much benefit from Electric Bitters, I feel it my duty to let suffering humanity know it. I have had a running sore on my leg for eight years; my doctors told me I would have to have the bone scraped or leg amputated. I used, instead, three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and my leg is now sound and well. Electric Bitters are sold at fifty cents a bottle, and Bucklen's Arnica Salve at 25c per box by C. F. Goodman.
